

- ITarian Remote Access software is a free product which lets you remotely control endpoint devices to solve issues and run maintenance.
- The product has a built-in support center which contains links to various support resources.
 - Download and install ITarian Remote Access from <https://remoteaccess.itarian.com/>
 - Open the interface and click the life preserver icon in the left-menu:

- Using Remote Access – View articles which explain how to perform tasks in Itarian Remote Access
- Something Not Working? - Submit a support ticket. Read knowledgebase articles
- Suggest a Feature – Visit the ITarian community message board and share your thoughts
- Getting Started - Learn to use the tool
- For more – Visit our website to find out how the ITarian platform can help transform your business